WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

Question of the Week

For Children: To follow Jesus means to do what is right. Name a time this past week when you followed Jesus by doing the right thing you were asked to do, the first time, without an excuse.

For Youth: The people in the story had lots of reasons why they couldn't follow Jesus. What makes it hard to be a disciple of Jesus? Why do you make the choice to follow Jesus even though it is hard?

For Adults: Sometimes we are like the people in the Gospel and have many excuses for why we cannot follow Jesus. Name a time this past week that you followed Jesus even though you had many excuses.

Liturgy of the Word

In today's Gospel Jesus resolutely begins his "journey to Jerusalem." He does this with some urgency, telling his disciples what they must do to follow him. As we hear these words today, perhaps we can examine our own lives to see what we need to set aside and leave behind in order to follow Jesus more closely on the way.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to my parish family for the cards and kind thoughts given to me and my family at the death of my son, Glenn. We are so grateful. ---Doris David and Family

LAY MISSION PROJECT

Many educational programs exist that prepare the laity for the pastoral care of the baptized in activities known as lay ecclesial ministry – for example: catechesis, visiting the sick or homebound, and in liturgical ministries such as lectoring, ushering, etc. However, such activities are extraordinary with respect to the call of the layperson.

The primary and ordinary call of the laity is the care of the secular order. We can transform secular society by living the faith in all aspects of life, primarily through family, social and occupational circles. The Lay Mission Project seeks to provide a process of formation that is accessible to the often busy lifestyle of the average lay Catholic.

The first group of participants will begin classes in August. If you desire to become a lay leader or if you wish to help raise funds to help others grow in their understanding of Catholic Doctrine. Application forms available at scddec.org/advanced or laymission.net.

VACATION BIBLE CAMP

Our parish Vacation Bible Camp, "Cave Quest – Following Jesus, the Light of the World", will be held July 18th – 22nd in the parish hall.

Registrations will be accepted through July 13th. There is no cost for the camp, but donations are still being accepted. It costs approximately $25 per child for the entire camp. The camp is limited to 40 children.

Supplies: Our Vacation Bible Camp is in need of packing peanuts; cardboard rolls from paper towels (NOT toilet paper); glitter (any color); rolls of brown paper; and glue. Items can be left in the box in the church foyer.

Volunteers Needed: We are also in need of more adult and teen volunteers. For more information, please call Johanna Trenery at 357-2416.
