WEEKLY REFLECTION

Question of the Week

For Children: Jesus promises to be our friend forever. How do friends treat each other?

For Youth: Jesus promised us that the Holy Spirit (the Advocate) would remain with us always. When have you experienced the Spirit?

For Adults: Which one of the promises in today's Gospel gives you the most hope?

Liturgy of the Word

"Why are you standing there looking at the sky?" asks the angel of the disciples who have just witnessed the Ascension. Indeed, they could ask us the same question. Listening to the Word of God today, let us focus on God's invitation to continue Christ's mission in the world. What do these sacred scriptures ask of you now, this week?

VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Mary has just learned amazing news! Angel Gabriel has told her that she will bear a child by the power of the Holy Spirit. This child will be called the Son of God. The angel has said that Elizabeth is also pregnant. This is wonderful, as Elizabeth and her husband, Zechariah, are an elderly couple who have wanted a child all their lives.

In response to this news, Mary sets out with haste. Elizabeth and Zechariah live a distance away. Mary chooses to make this journey because she is concerned for her cousin. She also wants to share her joy with someone who will understand. Her own pregnancy is still a secret.

Elizabeth greets her cousin with words that will be repeated by generations of Christians at prayer: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb." Elizabeth in her old age and Mary in all her youthfulness hold fast to each other. Mary sings a song that begins with the words "My soul magnifies the Lord..." This song weaves together the words of the prophets to proclaim God's goodness and care for the poor.

The visit of the cousins is also the first meeting of their unborn children, Jesus and John the Baptist. Elizabeth tells Mary that, at the sound of her voice, "the child within my womb leaped for joy."

We celebrated the Annunciation in March. Now it is the end of May. In the Song of Songs we read, "The winter is past. The rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come." Soon John will be born, and spring will have passed over into summer.
